

06.07.20

Spelling

This week, the spellings all contain the ending -que or -gue.

unique	The only one of its kind.
antique	A valuable object like a piece of furniture or art which has a high value because of its age and quality.
mosque	A Muslim place of worship.
grotesque	Very ugly.
plaque	Something that is fixed to a wall or other surface to remember a person or event.
league	A group of sports clubs which play each other for a championship.
intrigue	To make curious or interested in someone or something.
vague	Thinking or communicating in an unclear way.
dialogue	A conversation between two or more people in a book, play or film.
rogue	A dishonest person.

Task 2

Choose the correct word from the list to complete the sentence:

1. Billy's football team are currently top of the league
2. I have never seen anything like Klara's sculpture. It is totally unique.
3. Mr Wilks' instructions about how to bake bread were a little vague and resulted in a poor loaf.
4. The expeditions of polar explorers and their desire to put themselves into extreme danger intrigue me.
5. The goblin on top of the church looked down on me with a grotesque grin on its face.
6. Simran looked through second hand shops and car boot sales to find an antique she could sell for a quick profit!

Task 3

Use some of the spelling words in your own sentences. Try to use the ones I didn't use in Task 2.

Rising or moving up through the air.